

Coming to program every day is good. My program is SARAH Inc. It is important for me to come to program every day and be with my staff. We sit together and talk about life, then we go out and help. We help people that need it by bringing them food. With more money we could have someone come teach us music. I like to play games with my staff and go to parks. I don't want to sit home and be bored.

Olivia c o t

Olivia Cox

SARAH in Action North Haven